GRAIN MARKET.

Corn futures were lower in yester day's early trading, but rallied in the afternoon when the trade placed a bull-th construction on the Goodman crop The selling at the outset reited from larger receipts on Wednes-te the estimates of 275 cars in Chiengo for yesterday and continued favor-able weather. The weather map showed rains in Nebraska and Iowa and hot weather in Southern Illinois. Another affuence which favored selling was the weaker cash tone. Shorts, however, bygan to take profits when prices had deelined as much as 2 cents, and their covering orders were followed by buy-ing by commission houses. The latter sought when Goodman estimated that corn had only gained 1 per cent in average of but 3 points under that of corresponding time of last year. The condition and acreage figures in-dicate a crop of 2,753,000,000 bushels.
